ACO PHOTOGRAPHY

We don't just photograph animals...we photograph circumstances - learn what to shoot & how to shoot it

Geared toward becoming a better investigator, this course is an asset for both the new ACO and the seasoned officer. Learn how to show the circumstances of the incident and photographically show the relevance of what you find. You will learn how to support your case with proper photo documentation content and illustrate the elements of the violation. From nuisance and cruelty calls to bites, photography is a vital component of our cases. We will set the stage for you to avoid common pitfalls and get in the habit of thinking about what you are trying to convey with your photos.
